HOW TO RUN THIS PAGE

Model a different name, such as Ada Bell, showing how to form its letters and use a capital only at the start of each name. Read the prompts aloud, then watch students print their own names. Give oral spelling or letter-formation cues as needed.

Students never read directions on this sheet. Read each part's script aloud, then each prompt, giving think time before students mark.

PART 1 · CIRCLE NAMES

SAY "Look at each row. Listen to my question, then circle one choice."

ROW	SAY	STUDENTS CIRCLE
a	Which way of writing the first name Mia has only its first letter capital? Circle one.	Mia
b	Which way of writing the last name Park has only its first letter capital? Circle one.	Park

PART 2 · PRINT YOURS

SAY "Print your first name in the First box and your last name in the Last box. Make only the first letter of each name a capital. If you need help, ask me to say the letters or show you how to form one."

- Box 1 (beside First): The student's first name, with a capital first letter, lowercase remaining letters, and legible letter formation.
- Box 2 (beside Last): The student's last name, with a capital first letter, lowercase remaining letters, and legible letter formation.

WHAT TO ACCEPT

Circle answers: Mia, Park. Accept the student's own first and last names with only their initial letters capitalized and letters formed legibly. Record oral spelling or formation cues separately.
