YOUR JOB Write 1, 2, and 3 beside the parts of the passage that show how students get ballots, cast votes, and count votes.

The Friday Book Vote

1. Our class will vote for a book to hear on Friday. The choices are Moon Mouse and Rainy Robot. Ms. Kim writes both titles on the board. She gives each student one paper ballot. A ballot is a paper used to vote.

2. Each student marks one book on the ballot. No one has to tell the class which book they picked. Students fold their ballots and put them in a box. Each student votes only once, so everyone gets one choice.

3. After everyone votes, Ms. Kim opens the box. She counts the votes for each book while the class watches. Moon Mouse has 12 votes. Rainy Robot has 9 votes. Ms. Kim tells the class that Moon Mouse got more votes and will be read.
