Maya's Garden Visit

1. On Tuesday, Maya carried a small blue cup to the school garden. She walked slowly between the green plants. Tiny water drops sparkled on the leaves, and a busy bee buzzed near a bright yellow flower.

2. Ms. Lee showed Maya how to pour water gently at each plant's roots. Maya listened carefully. Then she poured a little water into the dry soil. The thirsty plants looked fresher by lunchtime.

3. At recess, Maya proudly showed her friends the garden. “The soft leaves feel smooth,” she said. Her friends smiled warmly and carefully touched the plants. Maya felt happy because they treated the garden kindly.
