HOW TO RUN THIS PAGE

Choose an informational book with separate credits for the person who wrote it and the person who made its pictures. Show the cover, read both credits aloud, and give students time to find the names. Listen to each student's oral answers and record any support you provide separately.

Students never read directions on this sheet. Read each part's script aloud, then each prompt, giving think time before students mark.

PART 1 · FIND THE PEOPLE

SAY "Look at this book. Listen as I read the names on it. For each row, say the person's name and circle that person's job."

ROW	SAY	STUDENTS CIRCLE
a	Who wrote the words in this book? Say the person's name. Is that person the author, the reader, or the illustrator? Circle one.	Author
b	Who made the pictures in this book? Say the person's name. Is that person the reader, the illustrator, or the author? Circle one.	Illustrator

PART 2 · TELL THEIR JOBS

SAY "Think about how the people who made this book share facts. Circle one choice in each row. Then tell me what that person does."

ROW	SAY	STUDENTS CIRCLE
a	What does the author write to share facts: pictures, sounds, or words? Circle one, then tell me what the author does.	Words
b	What does the illustrator make to show facts: pictures, words, or sounds? Circle one, then tell me what the illustrator does.	Pictures

WHAT TO ACCEPT

Accept the two correct names from the chosen book and circles of Author, Illustrator, Words, and Pictures, in that order. Oral explanations should say that the author writes the words and the illustrator makes the pictures.
