2. Ben drew a list of plants they had seen. Mo wrote two facts about the sunflowers. Ana put their ideas in order. When Mo had trouble with a word, Ben waited while Mo sounded it out.

PART 3 · YOUR TURN (SAMPLE ANSWER)

I would write the book's title on our poster. Lee would draw a scene, and Pat would write a sentence about the story. I would say, "Pat, your sentence helps people learn about the book."

For the marking job, accept underlines on each child's work and circles around the three statements naming a teammate's help. For Your Turn, look for three shared jobs and a specific, respectful thank-you.
