HOW TO RUN THIS PAGE

Read each part aloud and give children time to draw and write in the blank boxes. Ask each child what their writing says, and record any help you give separately.

Students never read directions on this sheet. Read each part's script aloud, then each prompt, giving think time before students mark.

PART 1 · A PLACE

SAY "Think of a place you like. Can you draw it in the first box and write about it in the second box using marks, letters, or words? When you are done, tell me what your writing says."

- Box 1: A drawing of a place the student likes.
- Box 2: Emergent writing that the student identifies as being about the place drawn.

PART 2 · AN ACTIVITY

SAY "Think of something you like to do. Can you draw yourself doing it in the first box and write about it in the second box using marks, letters, or words? When you are done, tell me what your writing says."

- Box 1: A drawing of the student doing a chosen activity.
- Box 2: Emergent writing that the student identifies as being about the activity drawn.

WHAT TO ACCEPT

Accept marks, letter-like forms, letters, or invented spelling when the student can explain the intended message. Look for a connection between each drawing and its writing.
