Places That Help Us

1. The Library At the library, people can borrow books to read at home. A library card helps workers keep track of borrowed books. Many libraries also have story times. The library gives neighbors a quiet place to read and learn.

2. The Fire Station Firefighters keep trucks and tools at the fire station. They check their gear so they are ready to help. When someone reports a fire, firefighters ride out to the place that needs help.

3. The Post Office At the post office, workers sort mail by where it needs to go. People can buy stamps there before mailing letters. A mail carrier takes letters from the post office to homes and other places.
