KINDERGARTEN · K.C.2.1

HOW TO RUN THIS PAGE

Read each short story and its printed choices aloud. Students circle the past event that matters to the town in the story. Record independent answers and answers given with support separately.

Students never read directions on this sheet. Read each part's script aloud, then each prompt, giving think time before students mark.

PART 1 · TOWN STORIES

SAY "These stories are about a town. Listen to each story and the three words I read. Circle the past event the town remembers."

ROW	SAY	STUDENTS CIRCLE
a	Last year, neighbors came together for a special day with music, dancing, and food. They still talk about it. Your choices are Festival, Recess, and Bedtime. Which past event does the town remember?	Festival
b	Long ago, families started a town. Neighbors still tell the story of how it began. Your choices are Snack, Founding, and Bath. Which past event does the town remember?	Founding

PART 2 · MORE MEMORIES

SAY "Listen to two more stories about the town. I will read the three choices for each one. Circle the past event the town remembers."

a	Years ago, a big storm sent water into the town. Neighbors helped each other get safe. Your choices are Shopping, Bedtime, and Flood. Which past event does the town remember?	Flood
b	Long ago, neighbors voted for their town's first leader. They still tell the story of that day. Your choices are Election, Lunch, and Recess. Which past event does the town remember?	Election

WHAT TO ACCEPT

In order, the answers are Festival, Founding, Flood, and Election. Accept one clear circle per row, and note any support given separately.
