Speak With Purpose

GRADE 1 · 1.P.CP.2.c

HOW TO RUN THIS PAGE

Read situations and choices aloud for the warm-up. In partner rehearsal, learners actually vary voice, pace and gestures for two purposes; observe and give a supported retry if the listener cannot follow.

Students never read directions on this sheet. Read each part's script aloud, then each prompt, giving think time before students mark.

PART 1 · USE YOUR VOICE

SAY "I will read the words and each situation. After each question, circle one word that fits how you would use your voice."

a	Listen: soft, loud, silly. You are telling a bedtime story to a baby. Which voice word fits?	soft
b	Listen: soft, loud, silly. You are welcoming families seated far from you at a school program. Which voice word fits?	loud
c	Listen: slow, steady, fast. Your partner must write every digit in a long phone number. Which pace word fits?	slow

PART 2 · USE A GESTURE

SAY "I will read the gesture words and each situation. After each question, circle one gesture word that fits. Now welcome two classmates as pretend program guests with a projecting but comfortable voice and a wave. Next, show a nearby partner one word on this sheet, point to it and explain it softly and slowly enough to follow. Ask each listener what they understood; vary your delivery and try again if needed."

a	Listen: nod, point, wave. You agree with what a partner says during a talk. Which gesture fits?	nod
b	Listen: nod, point, wave. You are talking about one word in a list. Which gesture helps listeners know which word you mean?	point
c	Listen: nod, point, wave. You greet people as you come to the front of a room. Which gesture fits?	wave

WHAT TO ACCEPT

Part 1 answers are soft, loud, slow. Part 2 answers are nod, point, wave. Also observe actual contrasting welcome and nearby explanation: appropriate voice change, deliberately slower pace for the explanation, fitting wave/point gestures and listener understanding. Comfortable audible projection suffices; no shouting or real phone number is needed. Marks alone are preparation.
