YOUR JOB Underline each adverb that tells when something happens. Circle each adverb that tells where something happens.

A Library Puppet Show

1. Today, Ms. Lee's class visits the town library. Outside, a bright sign shows a smiling dragon. The children walk quietly through the front door and look at shelves filled with storybooks, maps, and books about animals.

2. Inside, Mr. Omar sets up a puppet stage near the window. Soon, he will tell a tale about a fox. The class sits nearby on a blue rug and waits for the show to begin.

3. Later, the dragon puppet opens its mouth and roars. Then, the fox puppet hides upstairs behind a curtain. Now, the friends clap there, beside the stage, before they choose books to borrow.

2 ANSWER WITH EVIDENCE

Use the passage

1. Which three adverbs in paragraph 3 tell when something happens?

2. Which two adverbs in paragraph 2 tell where something happens?

3. What does each adverb tell: soon and upstairs?

3 YOUR TURN

Your own words

Write two sentences about getting ready for an activity. Use one adverb that tells when and one adverb that tells where. Underline the time adverb and circle the place adverb. Then reread your draft. Check whether each adverb correctly tells when or where your activity happens. Correct any adverb that does not fit. Explain one correction or one adverb you correctly kept.

PART 3 · YOUR TURN (SAMPLE ANSWER)

Tomorrow, I will draw a picture. Outside, I will show it to my friend.

Draft check: I kept Tomorrow because my drawing will happen the next day. I kept Outside because it tells where I will show the picture.

Accept any two complete sentences that include at least one clear time adverb and one clear place adverb. Accept correct markings, even if the student uses different adverbs than the sample. Require an actual own-draft adverb check and one meaning-based retain/correct reason. Accept a correct draft kept as written; no invented error is required.
