A Morning at Pine Street Garden

- ① On Saturday, Maya joined neighbors at the Pine Street garden. Mr. Lee gave each team a job. Maya listened while he spoke and said, “Thank you” when she received gloves. She carefully planted bean seeds in straight rows. When Jamal asked for the small shovel, Maya handed it to him politely. Then she checked the seed packets before choosing a sunny bed.
- ② During cleanup, Maya found a silver key near the water barrel. She did not put it in her pocket. Instead, she gave it to Mr. Lee and told him where she had found it. Later, Maya finished pulling weeds from her own plot before helping Jamal carry a heavy bag of leaves. Her careful choices helped others trust her.
- ③ At noon, the garden team needed to choose a place for a new compost bin. Maya waited for her turn, then shared her idea without interrupting. She listened to different opinions and agreed to help clean the path, even though it was not her assigned job. Before leaving, she returned the gloves, picked up litter, and reported a loose gate latch to Mr. Lee.

Accept the original passage answers and equivalent wording. For marking, accept six accurately labeled actions; one action can show several traits. Required: supply a few shared books, a reachable shelf and clear directions. Observe each child's respectful agreement, completion and truthful report. Support accessible roles and writing or exact dictation; give feedback and a retry. The three sentences describe actual actions, not a hypothetical plan; the model's number is illustrative.
