1 READ AND MARK

Read it twice

YOUR JOB Underline two spots you need to check as you read, then reread and circle the words that help you get the word or meaning right.

Pip at the Pond

1. Mina and her dog Pip went to a pond. A duck swam near the bank. Pip ran toward the water. Mina called, "Stop!" Pip did not stop. He splashed into the pond and scared the duck away.

2. Pip swam back with a stick in his mouth. Mina reached for the stick, but Pip would not let go. Then Mina saw a tiny frog on the stick. She set the frog on a flat rock.

3. The frog hopped into the grass. Pip shook water all over Mina. She laughed and rubbed his wet ears. Then she looked at the pond. The duck was back, swimming near the bank as if nothing had happened.

2 ANSWER WITH EVIDENCE

Use the passage

1. If you think bank means a place for money, which words tell you to reread? What does bank mean here?

2. If you read frog as fog in paragraph 2, what happens later that tells you to fix the word?

3. If you think Mina is upset when Pip gets her wet, which words make you check that idea?

3 YOUR TURN

Your own words

Pick a spot in the story that you might read the wrong way. Do not use bank, frog, or Mina's laugh. In two sentences, tell your first idea and how a clue helped you fix it when you reread.

Look Twice

GRADE 2 · 2.RF.4.c

PART 1 · READ AND MARK

Underline two spots you need to check as you read, then reread and circle the words that help you get the word or meaning right. Accept any marking that follows this job and points at the right text.

PART 2 · ANSWERS

#	QUESTION	ANSWER
1	If you think bank means a place for money, which words tell you to reread? What does bank mean here?	The duck swims near the bank at a pond. Bank means the land at the edge of the pond.
2	If you read frog as fog in paragraph 2, what happens later that tells you to fix the word?	The frog hops into the grass. Fog cannot hop.
3	If you think Mina is upset when Pip gets her wet, which words make you check that idea?	She laughs and rubs Pip's ears, so she does not seem upset.

PART 3 · YOUR TURN (SAMPLE ANSWER)

At first I thought Pip had a rock in his mouth. I reread "a stick in his mouth" and knew he was carrying a stick, not a rock.

Accept other underlined spots when the circled words are useful clues. For Part 3, accept two sentences that name a possible mistake and a story clue that corrects it.
