HOW TO RUN THIS PAGE

Display three storybooks with different topics and call them Book 1, Book 2, and Book 3 from left to right. Read the titles aloud and let children look through the books before they choose. Listen to each child's reasons and record any prompting or support separately.

Students never read directions on this sheet. Read each part's script aloud, then each prompt, giving think time before students mark.

PART 1 · MY PICKS

SAY "Which book would you choose to enjoy for fun, and why? Which book is about something you want to hear more about, and why? Tell me your reasons, then write the book numbers by Fun and Topic."

- Box 1 (beside Fun): The number of the book the child chose for enjoyment: 1, 2, or 3.
- Box 2 (beside Topic): The number of the book the child chose based on personal interest: 1, 2, or 3.

PART 2 · STORY WORK

SAY "Which book would you choose to find out how a character feels, and why? Which book would you choose to find a problem in a story, and why? Tell me your reasons, then write the book numbers by Feel and Problem."

- Box 1 (beside Feel): The number of a book the child chose to explore a character's feelings: 1, 2, or 3.
- Box 2 (beside Problem): The number of a book the child chose to find a story problem: 1, 2, or 3.

WHAT TO ACCEPT

Accept any book number that matches the child's selection and an oral reason connected to that choice. A child may choose the same book more than once.
