

Share What You Know

Use your experiences to give others useful information.

2.16.E “communicate information visually, orally, or in writing based on knowledge and experiences in social studies;”

NAME _____

DATE _____

1 READ AND MARK _____ Read it twice

YOUR JOB Number 1, 2, and 3 next to the parts that show Maya sharing information by writing, drawing, and speaking.

Maya Visits the Library

- ① On Saturday, Maya visited the town library with her grandfather. She saw shelves of books, computers, and a children's reading area. A librarian showed Maya how people can borrow books by using a library card.
- ② At school, Maya made a poster about the visit. She drew a book and wrote, “The library lets people borrow books.” She also wrote, “A librarian helps people find books.” Her words shared what she learned.
- ③ Maya stood beside her poster and told the class about her visit. She spoke clearly and pointed to her drawing. Her classmates learned that a library has books to borrow and a librarian who helps readers.

2 ANSWER WITH EVIDENCE _____ Use the passage

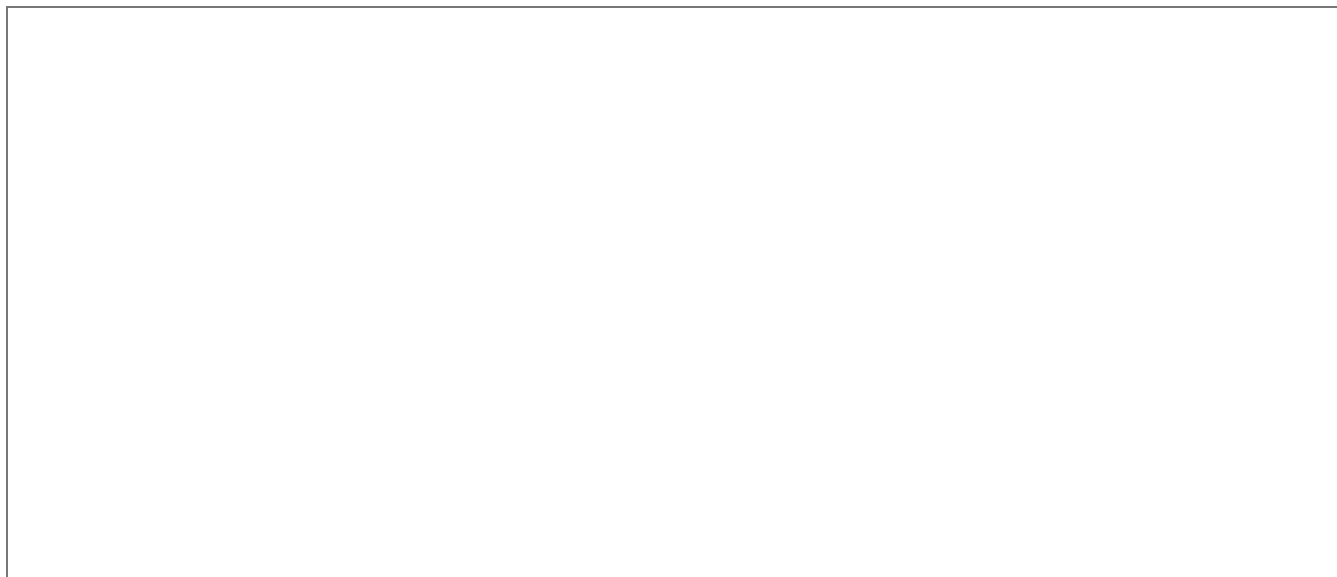

1 What fact did Maya communicate in writing on her poster?

2 How did Maya's drawing and words work together on her poster?

3 What information did Maya tell aloud that helped her classmates learn about the library?

3 YOUR TURN _____ Your own words

Think of a place you have visited, such as a park, store, or library. Draw the place, then write two sentences that tell classmates facts you know about it.

PART 1 • READ AND MARK

Number 1, 2, and 3 next to the parts that show Maya sharing information by writing, drawing, and speaking. Accept any marking that follows this job and points at the right text.

PART 2 • ANSWERS

#	QUESTION	ANSWER
1	What fact did Maya communicate in writing on her poster?	The library lets people borrow books. OR: A librarian helps people find books.
2	How did Maya's drawing and words work together on her poster?	Her drawing showed a book, and her words explained that people can borrow books.
3	What information did Maya tell aloud that helped her classmates learn about the library?	She told them that the library has books to borrow and that a librarian helps readers.

PART 3 • YOUR TURN (SAMPLE ANSWER)

Drawing: a playground with swings. I visited a park near my home. The park has swings and a slide.

For Part 1, students should identify writing, drawing, and speaking as Maya's three ways of sharing information. Accept any accurate place drawing and two complete sentences that communicate facts based on the student's experience.