

Sign It Clearly

A model note for noticing cursive capitals, lowercase letters, and signatures.

2.FFW.1 “Handwriting Maintain legible printing and begin to make the transition to cursive. Begin to write capital and lowercase letters of the alphabet in cursive. Begin to sign his/her first and last names.”

NAME _____

DATE _____

1 READ AND MARK _____ Read it twice

YOUR JOB Circle the two capital letters in the cursive signature and underline all of its lowercase letters. This helps you notice how a cursive first and last name begin and flow.

A Seed Sale Note

- ① Dear Mr. Cole, I made a sign for our class seed sale. I printed each word slowly, leaving a small space between words. The sign says, “Sunflower Seeds, Ten Cents.”
- ② Please put the sign beside the cups of seeds. My friend Nia will bring the cups to the playground gate at three o’clock. We want families to see our clear printing and read the price easily.
- ③ Thank you for helping our class. I will write the first letters of my first and last names with tall cursive capitals. Then I will join the lowercase letters carefully in my signature below. Sincerely, Elena Park

2 ANSWER WITH EVIDENCE Use the passage

1 In the cursive signature, copy the capital letter that begins the first name.

2 In the cursive signature, copy the lowercase letter that comes after the capital P.

3 Write the first and last name from the signature in cursive.

3 YOUR TURN Your own words

Write a two-sentence note asking a grown-up to visit a pretend class event. Write at least one capital and three lowercase letters in cursive, then sign your first and last names in cursive.

PART 1 • READ AND MARK

Circle the two capital letters in the cursive signature and underline all of its lowercase letters. This helps you notice how a cursive first and last name begin and flow. Accept any marking that follows this job and points at the right text.

PART 2 • ANSWERS

#	QUESTION	ANSWER
1	In the cursive signature, copy the capital letter that begins the first name.	E, written in cursive.
2	In the cursive signature, copy the lowercase letter that comes after the capital P.	a, written in cursive.
3	Write the first and last name from the signature in cursive.	Elena Park, written in cursive.

PART 3 • YOUR TURN (SAMPLE ANSWER)

Please visit our class book show. I will show you my favorite book. Jordan Lee

Accept letter forms that are legible cursive attempts, even if they differ from the displayed style. For the open task, accept any two-sentence event note with at least one cursive capital, three cursive lowercase letters, and a cursive first and last name signature.