Mountain Snow Cursive

Trace, copy, and sign in cursive.

2.FFW.1 "Handwriting Maintain legible printing and begin to make the transition to cursive. Begin to write capital and lowercase letters of the alphabet in cursive. Begin to sign his/her first and last names."

NAME _____ DATE _____

BEFORE YOU WRITE

- Sit tall as you write.
- Let your letters rest on the baseline.
- Leave a finger space between words.

1 CURSIVE LETTERS

Trace

Trace each capital and lowercase letter in cursive.

Vv Ww Vv Ww

Rr Ss Rr Ss

Oo Oo Oo Oo

Bb Bb Bb Bb

2 SNOWY JOINS

Trace

Trace each letter pair and word in cursive.

ai ou ai ou

br wh br wh

view view view

2 SNOWY JOINS (CONTINUED)

Trace

brisk brisk

3 MOUNTAIN SENTENCES

Copy

Copy each sentence in cursive on the line below it.

White snow covers rocks.

Clouds drift over a trail.

4 YOUR OWN WRITING

In cursive

Write your first and last name in cursive. Then write your own sentence about mountains or snow in cursive.

CHECK YOUR WRITING

- [ ] I left spaces between words.
- [ ] My letters fit the guide lines.
- [ ] My letters lean the same way.
- [ ] My letters rest on the baseline.

ANSWER KEY

Mountain Snow Cursive

GRADE 2 · 2.FFW.1

WHAT TO LOOK FOR

- Student begins forming the featured capital and lowercase letters in cursive.
- Letter joins are visible in pairs and words.
- Copied sentences are legible, spaced, and placed on the baseline.
- Student writes a first and last name in cursive.
- Student writes an original sentence about mountains or snow in cursive.

The models are printed in one traditional cursive. If your handwriting program forms a letter differently, students follow your program.

MODELS ON THE PAGE

- Part 1 · Cursive Letters (trace): Vv Ww · Rr Ss · Oo · Bb
- Part 2 · Snowy Joins (trace): ai ou · br wh · view · brisk
- Part 3 · Mountain Sentences (copy): White snow covers rocks. · Clouds drift over a trail.

YOUR OWN WRITING (SAMPLE)

Task: Write your first and last name in cursive. Then write your own sentence about mountains or snow in cursive.

Maya Lee. Snowdrifts fill deep valleys.

The own-writing sample includes a first and last name followed by a complete sentence. Accept any legible first and last name and any sensible sentence about mountains or snow.