Notes Around School

1. The school garden club posted a note beside the tool shed. It read, "Meet by the gate at 3:15 on Tuesday. Bring gloves if you have them." Below the message, a student wrote a name in blue ink: Talia Monroe. A small drawing of a sunflower filled the corner of the paper for passing students to see.

2. Near the cafeteria, another paper asked volunteers to stack chairs after the family reading night. The note listed a start time of 6:30 and a place to meet. At the bottom, the writer left this ink signature: Owen Park. A paper clip held the note beside a map of the school for visitors arriving after sunset.

3. On the hallway bulletin board, a third card thanked helpers for sorting donated books. Its final line said, "Please return the boxes to Room 12." The card ended with Mina Shah. Next to it, a smaller reminder about recycling had only the word Sam at the bottom. Both papers used clear, dark letters that were easy to read.
