Snowy Morning Cursive

Trace, copy, write, and sign.

5.FFW.1 "Handwriting Maintain legible printing. Maintain legible cursive. Sign first and last name."

NAME _____ DATE _____

BEFORE YOU WRITE

- Let your letters rest on the baseline.
- Leave a finger space between words.
- Tilt your paper to help your hand move smoothly.

1 LETTERS AND WORDS

Trace

Trace each letter group and word in cursive.

q q G Q q q G Q

j y J Y j y J Y

p z P Z p z P Z

quilt quilt

frozen frozen

2 JOINING LETTERS

Trace

Trace the letter pairs and snowy morning words in cursive.

ol vi ol vi

be on be on cold cold cold

2 JOINING LETTERS (CONTINUED)

Trace

bells bells

3 MORNING SENTENCES

Copy

Copy each sentence in cursive on the line below it.

A vivid sunrise lit the pond.

Snow covered every branch.

4 YOUR OWN WRITING

In cursive

Write two sentences about a snowy morning in cursive. Then sign your first and last name.

CHECK YOUR WRITING

- [ ] I left spaces between words.
- [ ] I kept my letters a steady size.
- [ ] My letters lean in a steady way.
- [ ] My letters rest on the baseline.

ANSWER KEY

Snowy Morning Cursive

GRADE 5 · 5.FFW.1

WHAT TO LOOK FOR

- Lowercase and capital letters are recognizable.
- Letter pairs and words have readable cursive joins.
- Sentences have clear word spacing and consistent size, slant, and baseline placement.
- The student writes two original sentences and signs a legible first and last name.

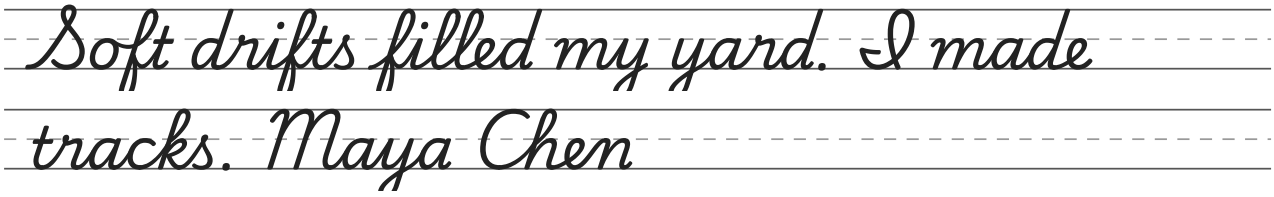

The models are printed in one traditional cursive. If your handwriting program forms a letter differently, students follow your program.

MODELS ON THE PAGE

- Part 1 · Letters and Words (trace): g q G Q · j y J Y · p z P Z · quilt · frozen
- Part 2 · Joining Letters (trace): ol vi · be on · cold · bells
- Part 3 · Morning Sentences (copy): A vivid sunrise lit the pond. · Snow covered every branch.

YOUR OWN WRITING (SAMPLE)

Task: Write two sentences about a snowy morning in cursive. Then sign your first and last name.

The original sentences and signature will vary. The sample shows two snowy morning sentences followed by a first and last name.