NAME _____

DATE _____

1 READ AND MARK _____ Read it twice

YOUR JOB Underline each name of an Indigenous nation or tribe connected to the Southwest. This helps you identify the peoples who have lived in this region.

Peoples of the Southwest

- ① The Southwest is a dry region with deserts, mesas, and canyons. Indigenous peoples have lived there for thousands of years and live there today. The Hopi Tribe, Zuni Tribe, Navajo Nation, and Apache tribes are connected to this region.
- ② Hopi and Zuni people built Pueblo homes from stone and adobe, a sun-dried mud brick. They grew corn, beans, and squash where water was available. Their careful farming fit the dry land.
- ③ Many Navajo people raise sheep and weave wool into rugs and blankets. Apache people have used plants from the land for food and medicine. Nations and tribes have different traditions, yet all adapted to Southwest lands.

2 ANSWER WITH EVIDENCE _____ Use the passage

1 Name two Indigenous nations or tribes connected to the Southwest.

2 Which two groups built Pueblo homes?

3 How did Navajo people or Apache people use resources from the Southwest?

3 YOUR TURN _____ Your own words

Write two sentences for a class display. Name two groups from the passage, then tell one way their traditions were alike or different.

PART 1 • READ AND MARK

PART 2 • ANSWERS

#	QUESTION	ANSWER
1	Name two Indigenous nations or tribes connected to the Southwest.	Any two: Hopi Tribe, Zuni Tribe, Navajo Nation, or Apache tribes.
2	Which two groups built Pueblo homes?	Hopi and Zuni people.
3	How did Navajo people or Apache people use resources from the Southwest?	Navajo people raised sheep and wove wool into rugs and blankets. Apache people used plants for food and medicine.

PART 3 • YOUR TURN (SAMPLE ANSWER)

The Hopi Tribe and Zuni Tribe are Indigenous groups of the Southwest. They were alike because both built Pueblo homes and grew corn, beans, and squash.

Accept any two correctly named groups for Question 1. For the class display, accept two groups from the passage and an accurate comparison based on the text.
